

105-1677

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / surveillance

February 21, 1923. In connection with the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal, and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N. J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative proceeded to the vicinity of the Lord Sterling School on Carman St., New Brunswick, N. J.

At about 3.25 p.m. Operative noticed a Police Officer enter the above mentioned school by way of the Hassart Street entrance. The above mentioned Police Officer is about 5 feet, 7 inches in height, rather stout, fair complexion, and has Iron Gray Hair.

The above mentioned Police Officer was observed by Operative coming from the school in company and in conversation with the Subject, a short time later.

The Police Officer in question regulates traffic at the corner of Carman and George Sts, New Brunswick, N.J., during school hours.

At about 4.20 p.m. the Subject left the school building and proceeded to and entered the house at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J. At the time the Subject was observed by Operative, he was wearing a soft Gray Hat, a dark Suit, Black Cardigan Jacket, and a three-quarter length dark colored Overcoat. The Subject's clothing appeared somewhat dusty. The Subject walked very slowly, and appeared to be much thinner than when observed by Operative some-time previous.

Operative kept the building at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J., under surveillance until 9.30 p.m., then proceeded to the railroad station and boarded the 10.15 p.m. train for New York City, and discontinued.

There were no other activities concerning the Subject, other than as mentioned above.